

Mary Banning, tenth and last child of John and Mary Banning, was born Aug. 31, 1816. Married Joseph Oliver Dec. 31, 1835. Died April 11, 1861. Had ten children. - James, died in infancy. - Eleanor, married George Phelps. Had two children, Clinton and Stella. Clinton was born a cripple. Stella is married. John B. died when grown to manhood. - Joseph, married, had two children. Himself and wife both dead. - Mary Emma, married Charles Peck. Born to them - Charles Botsford, married Helen Rice, June 19, 1900. Eleanor Maud died quite young. William also died Dec. 14, 1902. Age about twenty-three years. - Mary Emma (Dollie) about twenty-one years of age. - Margaret, married Mr. Henriksen. He died. George P., died. Wm. A., died. - Fannie Curtis, married James Sullivan. Had six sons. Lost one. Two are married, Oliver, the eldest, and James Jr. Number of grandchildren, thirteen.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

The follow data was omitted, through an oversight, in the Chichester record on Page 7. Marian Chichester, wife of Warren Chichester died June 4, 1885. Age 30 yrs. He married again July 18, 1890, Ella Provost. - W. J. Lyon, husband of Jessie Chichester, died June 1905.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

I wish to say before closing that I consider the children of John and Mary Banning of as high a type of humanity as ever walked on God's earth and I am proud to be one of their descendants.

Respectfully submitted,

Julia A. B. Knapp.

February 22, 1904.